

Housing Advisory Group

In a very positive development, we understand a majority of House Republicans on the House Ways and Means Committee expressed support at their recent retreat for including the Low Income Housing Tax Credit in the tax reform blueprint currently under discussion. The blueprint is being drafted into legislative language, and Ways and Means Committee Chairman Kevin Brady (R-TX) has indicated the bill would be ready should the Trump Administration want to move forward on tax reform early in 2017. Exact timing remains uncertain.

Housing Advisory Group

David Gasson

Executive Director
617.624.8896 (direct)

Allison E. Marino

Communications Associate
617.624.8678 (direct)

Follow us on twitter